

Mr Shahar Uddin Ahmed

Place of Residence: London

Sector: Business

Mr Shahar Uddin Ahmed came to England in 1998. Before arriving in the UK he completed his education in Bangladesh. He completed his SSC in Shahjalal Jame School, then his HSC from Madanmohan College and University in Sylhet and then went onto do his BSS from MC College, Sylhet and finally when in the UK completed a diploma in computers from the London Guildhall University.

Mr Ahmed, whilst in Bangladesh worked part time by supporting the family business; Dolphin Furniture, a leading furniture manufacturer. He started his own business by setting up an Internet Café and a Men's Clothes shop in London.

Mr Shahar Uddin Ahmed has been involved in many charitable initiatives. He was the founder member of the Hunger Project in Sylhet and sponsors a football team called NEWARK based in East London.

Currently Mr Ahmed is the owner and proprietor of Desi Wedding, one of the leading event management company in East London who specialise in planning and organising bespoke weddings. His company has received endorsements from various celebrities, making them the most high profile ethnic wedding planners. Mr Ahmed's company operate some of the largest wedding venues in London, and also own Royal Regency hall in East London.

Mr Ahmed employs over 100 staff and trains new recruits that come mainly from Bangladesh.

Mr Shahar Uddin Ahmed has five brothers and two sisters.