

Maulana Shah Muhammad Anas

Place of Residence: London

Sector: Religious

Qari Muhammad Gias Uddin of Gulduba village, Habigonj District, was the father of Mr. Muhammad Anas. Maulana Shah Muhammad Anas was born in Bangladesh on the 14th of September in the year of 1965. Four years after his birth in 1969, was when he, his mother and his elder brother left their homeland of Bangladesh, to go and live in the UK. There their father lived and so they came to join him. Together the family lived in Earls Court, in London.

From 1970, he attended and finished his early studies up to secondary school. This school was located in Portsmouth. Afterwards in 1986, Maulana Shah Muhammed Anas completed his Aalim course, M.A in Islamic Theology. He undertook this course and finished it in Europe's first ever-Islamic College and University, the Darul- Uloom Bury Lancashire.

Straight after, Mr. Muhammad Anas started to work. In 1988 he was appointed the first Imam and Khateeb of International Khatme Nubuwwat Centre, which was located in Stockwell, London. Subsequently, for three years from 1990 to 1993, he had the role of being the Imam for Poplar Jame Masjid, also in London. From the year 2003 and to this day, Maulana Shah Muhammed Anas is the Principal Imam of an Islamic School/ College, which is called Zakariya Academy.

Besides his different career roles he has had over the many years, Mr. Muhammed Anas has always made time to get himself involved with various community organisations and made sure that he has had an impact on the society he lives in. He was one of the candidates to represent the area of Wapping, for the local Council Elections in 1990. In 1991, he took on the role of being a Trustee for Jamiah Islamiah in East Sussex, Kent. In addition to that, he was also the Chairman for Jamiatush Shabaab in 1995. At the moment, Maulana Shah Muhammad Anas is the Chairman for Jamiatul Ulama.

Maulana Shah Muhammad Anas is now married. He has been blessed with five adorable children, all of whom have supported him and still do.