

Mr Ikbal Hussain Bulbul

Place of Residence: Enfield, Middlesex Sector: Literacy

Mr Ikbal Hussain Bulbul was born in 1972 in the village of Mathura (Kholagram), Beani Bazar, Sylhet.

Mr Bulbul moved to the UK in 1989. After he arrived in the UK, he was studying as well as working. Later he established himself as a writer, he has been writing in known Bengali newspapers and magazines in the UK and Bangladesh, Apart from his writing he has also involved himself in the catering business successfully.

Mr Bulbul mainly focused on writing his books: 'Tumar Shimanar Baire Norok, Nathiheen Timir Nishi, Sukh Heen Sukher Sathe', was published recently and a great review from critics has been received for all of his work. At this moment he is working on his new books, which will be published very soon.

Mr Bulbul has also involved himself with numerous social and cultural organisations in the UK as well as in Bangladesh, such as Beani Bazar Jono Kollan Somity, Beani Bazar Trust, Beani Bazar Lions Club, Bangladesh Caterers Association, Bangladesh Welfare Association, Shodesh Sahitto Group, as well as many others. He is a life long member of Sylhet Academy and the chair of writers and teachers welfare trust 'Shikkon' and Adil Hussain Trust.

Mr Bulbul is currently living in Enfield in Middlesex with his wife Jhorna and son Adil Hussain.