

Mr Gulap Miah Choudhury

Place of Residence: Bangor, North Wales
Sector: Catering

Mr Gulap Miah Choudhury is the current joint treasurer of Bangor Bangladeshi welfare association. The successful restaurateur moved to North Wales in 1981 to open his first establishment. Born in Derai, Sunamgonj in Bangladesh to a very well known and respected family in the region, Mr Choudhury completed his junior and high school education there before moving to the UK in 1975.

Mr Choudhury similar to many migrants coming into the UK settled in London where there was an already established vibrant Bangladeshi community. After five years working in the cities catering industry, Mr Choudhury decided to move to North Wales and live the rural life-style as well as open his first restaurant called the Royal Tandoori. For the last twenty seven years the restaurant based in the student town of Bangor has been extremely successful. On numerous occasions the establishment has been recommended in local and national publications.

The proud restaurant owner who is also a member of the Greater Sylhet Development Council aims to link his business skills to Bangladesh. With that purpose in mind, Mr Choudhury has bought a 32-acre of farming land in his locality in Bangladesh and plans to create employment opportunities for the local unemployed people. He also generously donated regularly to numerous causes in Bangladesh and uses his business to host charity nights to raise money for victims of natural disasters.

Married with two sons and two daughters, Mr Choudhury prays Allah (SAW) to keep them on the right path.
