

Mr. Md Ahsan Habib

Place of Residence: Coventry
Sector: Finance

Mr Ahsan Habib was born in 1960 at Nayasarak in Sylhet. His grand father, late Omrah Miah was a religious personality during his life time. His father late Mohammed Ishaq was a government officer during the Pakistan Period.

Mr Habib worked for Biman Bangladesh Airlines at Dhaka and Sylhet airport as a Supervisor for five years.

After arriving in the UK Mr Ahsan Habib joined an insurance company in January 1992 with the help of a individual named Mr Erikh Robert. This was the turning point of his life.

He then left the insurance company and later joined a second, much larger and better established insurance company in Birmingham called "Allied Dunber". He received full training their and acquired business knowledge and tactics whilst working as a Sales Adviser at the Sun Alliance Company.

During that time, Mr Ahsan Habib provided practical advice to Bengali families in relation to the right to buy scheme and what those families could do to take advantage of this scheme.

After 1996 Mr Habib did not do any other job. It was in 1997 when he established his own business named "M A H Mortgage & Finance" at Coventry. His business was a grand success and continues to be today.

Mr Habib has been closely connected to community work. He was the ex- school governor of Stanton Bridge Primary School for two years, Director of Muslim Community Centre for two years,

Director of Coventry Bangladesh Centre, and Executive Member of Shahjalal Mosque Coventry.

Mr Habib has an extended business establishment. He is the director of Dhaka Regency five Star Hotel and Grand Sylhet ApartHotel & Resort, as well as being Director of Aporupa Housing, Sylhet. He was awarded by British Bangladesh Business Link in 2007 and by Birmingham Bangladesh League in 2008 for his excellent work as a financial adviser.
