

Mr Alhaz Mohamad Gulzar Hussain

Place of Residence: St. Albans

Sector: Community Relations

Mr Alhaz Mohamad Gulzar Hussain is the former Chairman of the Bangladesh Welfare Association and a proud activist of the Bangladesh Liberation movement in 1971. Born in Jogonnathpur, Sunamgonj in Bangladesh, Mr Hussain son of late Rashid Miah Mohaldul studied in Bangladesh before coming to the UK.

After completing his primary education at the Mirpur Junior, Mr Hussain attended the Jogonnathpur Shorup Chandra High to complete his SSS examinations. Mr Hussain graduated in a further education course in addition to setting up a successful business once in the UK.

However, Mr Hussain has also held several full time positions in the UK working for the General Workers Trade Unions during the mid-eighties and from 1987 to 2000, former Chairman of the Bangladesh Welfare Association worked on behalf of City and St Albans Immigration and Income Tax department. In addition to his employment, Mr Hussain has been an imperative member of the Bangladeshi Community in St Albans.

Over the years Mr Hussain has held numerous senior executive positions for a multitude of different community organisations in Hertfordshire. For over twenty years, Mr Hussain has also been a member Christian-Muslim dialogue project as well as establishing a Muslim burial site in his locality. Through his business, Mr Alhaz Mohamad Gulzar Hussain has raised thousands of pounds for a number of charities and educational projects in Bangladesh.

For his efforts over the years, Mr Hussain has received awards from Channel S in 2006 and is a prospective MBE candidate. Married to Mrs Jahanara Hussain in 1969 they are blessed with six sons and two daughters.