

Mr M A Hussain

Place of Residence: Essex
Sector: Catering

Mr M A Hussain was born in 1962 and is very well known amongst the community, especially in Essex. He has over twenty three years experience in the catering industry.

He has previously worked as an assistant manager for the Indian restaurant Monjeel Indian Cuisine. He is also the proprietor of The Tandoorian Nights restaurant in Leigh on Sea, the Rochford Tandoori in Rochford Essex, the Shajalal Corporation and T/A Murriya Indian cuisine in Lexington, Manhattan, New York in the USA. Finally he is the proprietor and Director of Croftlive Limited T/A The Café Masala in Thorpe Bay Essex.

Mr Hussain has been elected Treasurer of the Essex Bangladeshi Welfare Association and became the General Secretary of the Association later. In this role he has been working closely with the Bangladeshi community in Essex to create a peaceful society and to build a future of security and prosperity for his people in the community. Mr Hussain has worked with the Bangladeshi Catering Association to improve working life for restaurateurs as well as increase business ownership, conserve the environment and increase profit margin.

Alongside this Mr Hussain has been supporting many charitable organisations and programmes, and has donated generously to numerous causes both here in the United Kingdom as well as in Bangladesh. He has a thorough knowledge of Food Hygiene and has extensive background knowledge of running and working and owning Indian restaurants.

Other skills Mr M A Husaain acquires is in the field of Mathematics, English, Social Economics, Graphic Design, Geography, Chemistry, Customer Service and History.

Mr Hussain interests lies in travelling, cooking, reading and music and culture.

Mr Hussain is married to Sadia Rahanara Hussain JP and they have two children together.