

Mr Md. Moftil Hussain

Place of Residence: Essex
Sector: Catering

Mr Md. Moftil Hussain is the owner of Mumtaz Mahal and Suhag Restaurant in Essex, where he resides. Before coming to the United Kingdom in 1967, Mr Hussain had completed his high school education in Kuskipur and upon arrival obtained a Diploma.

Born in 1956 in the village of Sikondorpur Osmaninogor, Sylhet, Mr Moftil Hussain, son of late Abul Hussain was second oldest amongst three brothers and three sisters. Moreover Mr Moftil Hussain's uncle was a well renowned religious leader in Sylhet, his name was Nazir Hussain, Zinjir Sha. Mr Hussain has made his name in the restaurant business, having set up his first restaurant in 1970. However these days he is also extremely heavily occupied in the property market, having several properties to his name, as well various other businesses.

Based in South Benfleet, Mr Hussain's restaurant the Mumtaz Mahal has been a well-established family run Tandoori Restaurant since 1977. Furthermore it is the longest established Tandoori Restaurant in the Castle Point District.

Moftil Hussain is married Mrs Sufia Begum, they have two sons; Iqbal

Hussain and Nazrul Hussain who have been educated to a high level in the UK and are leading successful careers.

Besides Mr Hussain's business interest, he is also an active member of the British Bangladeshi community. He is involved in politics as well as various social activities. He is the Treasurer of the Bangladesh Caterers Association, Essex Branch, as well as being a member of the central committee. Additionally he is also Treasurer for the Greater Sylhet Gonodabi Porishod and Life member Sylhet Academy UK and Europe. He is also trustee of Balagonj Education Trust and the Balagonj Shomity. He is a founder trustee of Essex Mosque.

Md. Moftil Hussain was one of the organisers of the 1971 Liberation movement in the UK. He has also participated in other such social and community initiatives and is an altruistic individual having donated incessantly to help mosques, schools and other organisations both here in the UK and in Bangladesh.

Mr Moftil Hussain is a member of the Conservative Party, and believes that politics and community work can make a huge positive impact on society and therefore has dedicated an immense proportion of his time to these causes.