

Mr Haji Ismail Khan

Place of Residence: Llandudno, North Wales

Sector: Business

Mr Khan was born in the village of Moulovi Gaon in the Sylhet region of Bangladesh in 1959, and he is the third child of six brothers and sisters. He comes from a renowned family. It was in 1977 that Mr Haji Ismail Khan left his homeland for the United Kingdom.

Mr Khan started his first business in 1982, and he is now the proprietor of two takeaways – Agra Valley Ltd and Roses Kebab House, both of which are based in Wales. His businesses are very popular and as a result he has obtained much recognition, praise and success.

Away from his business life, Mr Khan is a trustee of the Conwyl Mosque Islamic Centre, and also the treasurer for Bangor Bangladesh Welfare Association.

Mr Khan has invested in many different countries, and regularly donates money to poor people across the globe. He has donated to mosques, schools and towards many other charitable causes both here in the United Kingdom and in Bangladesh.

Mr Khan is one of the prominent British Bangladeshi figures in North Wales because of his dedication to his businesses and his efforts for community wide initiatives. At the forefront of his labours is the welfare of the British Bangladeshi community in Wales.

Haji Ismail Khan is married, and he and his wife have three sons and three daughters.