

Mr Yawar Khan

Place of Residence: Surrey

Sector: Catering

Mr. Yawar Khan is the son of late Mr. Ibrahim Khan. He was born in the village of Akua, Rajnagar, Moulvibazar, where his family are well known amongst the locals and very much respected. In 1983, he married Mrs. Sayeda Ferdousara Khan, with whom he has four children. Eldest child is daughter Jesmin Khan, who is currently studying law. Studying medicine in Kings College is second child Al Imran Khan. After him comes son Al Farhan Khan and youngest is daughter Anisa Khan, both are also studying.

Bangladesh was where Mr. Yawar Khan carried out most of his studies, although he only studied up to his secondary education. He then came to the UK and here he decided to carry out a Diploma in business, which he thrived in doing so.

Mr. Yawar Khan started his first restaurant business in 1974 and now, due to his drive and enthusiasm to do well, he is the owner of a group of restaurants, more than 16 to be specific. On top of his restaurant businesses, he also has his very own Property Business and many other varying types of business such as importing and exporting goods.

Mr Khan is also the owner Indian Spice Take Away who specialise in catering for events as well as the owner of Indian Curry Centre, a supplier of chilled ready-made Indian meals.

Besides managing his several different types of businesses which he owns, Mr. Khan has always been one to get himself involved with his local community as he realizes the significance of helping out those who are in need of aid. He is part of differing organizations and charities. To begin with, he is a member of the Rotary Club in Warrington, where he resides. He is also a member of BBCC, the Vice president of B.C.A. Additionally he is involved with his local Red Cross and is an Executive Committee member of Carshalton and Wallington Business Association.

Mr. Yawar Khan is also the Surrey Correspondent for the Weekly Bangla Mirror.

He is one to donate much of his earnings to the underprivileged. He is always giving money to help his home country of Bangladesh, where he has helped in the making of many different institutions, from schools to mosques.