

Mr Mohammed Abdul Mannan

Place of Residence: Surrey
Sector: Business

Born in 1960 in the village of Maithura, Beanibazar in the district of Sylhet, Bangladesh, He is the son of late Anai Miah.

He was educated in Bangladesh in Maithura High School up to year 7. He then came to London in 1973 when he was twelve years old. He then did his O-levels in London.

He left school early and started off working as a tailor. Later on, he started his own catering business. He has a very impressive business portfolio, he has been a sole trader and is also a partner of many businesses as well, owning many restaurants. He became a very successful business man. He then wanted to continue his success in Property Development and also the Stock Market. He developed many properties in the UK and also Bangladesh.

He is a very well established businessman, and is now a millionaire who is worth approximately four million pounds.

He is the director of MRS Brothers Ltd. He is also the managing director of the Millennium Shopping centre in Sylhet, Bangladesh.

In addition to all of this work. He also finds the time to participate in many charity activities and is involved with lots of organisations. He is the chairman of Epsom and Ewell Bengali Association, Joint secretary of Bangladesh Catering Association in the Surrey Region. He is the trustee of Beanibazar Welfare Trust UK and a member of the British Bangladesh Chamber of Commerce.

He now lives in Epsom Surrey, married to Syeda Khatun, who have four children: Abdul Mumin (19), Abdul Samad (17), Hajera Begum (15) and Salma Begum (11).