

Mr. Mohammad Alais Miah

Place of Residence: Milton Keynes

Sector: Property

Mohammad Alais Miah, known as M A Mathin was born in 1953 in the village of Sreeramishi, Jagannathpur, Sunamgonj in Bangladesh. He is the son of late Alhaj Abdul Wahid. Mr Miah's education began in Bangladesh where he completed his secondary school education. He came to the UK in 1967, and completed a Business Studies course.

Mr Miah has become successful through an extensive property and restaurant portfolio. However, he has become well known in the British Bangladeshi community through his hard work and dedication to promoting needy causes. He helps to raise funds for Bangladeshi students who wish to complete their higher study in the UK, and has also made numerous donations to the building of mosques and madrasas.

Mr Miah has also held prestigious roles at many organisations. For example, he was the chairman of the Bletchley Milton Keynes Jamee Mosque from 1995 to 1997. He the vice-chairman of the Midland branch of Bangladesh Caterers Association (BCA) from 1989 to 1991, and is currently the vice-president of the Central branch of BCA. He is a member of BBCC in London and a founder trustee of the BJ Education Trust, as well as the trustee and general secretary of Al-Makkah Islamic School. In addition to these roles, he is also the president and permanent member of Sylhet Glorious Sporting Football Club.

Mohammad Alais Miah married in 1974 to Dilwara Begum, and they have eight children. Their eldest child, Dean Junayed Mohamad Miah, graduated from Buckingham University in 1997 having studied Law and Politics. Their second child, Munira Khatun Miah is married, and their third, Noor Mohammad Mujayed Miah is at school. Their remaining children, all daughters, are called Humaira Khatun Miah, Masuma Khatun Miah, Naziba Khatun Miah, Aklima Khatun Miah and Habiba Khatun Miah.