

Mr. Shanur Miah

Place of Residence: London

Sector: Business

Shanur Miah was born on the in February 1964, in the village of Araiha in Moulavibazar Sador. His father is Haji Md Askir Miah (Akhonji) and mother Faizun Nessa.

He started his primary education in Monurmukh Govt Primary School in Moulavibazar, he passed his SSC examination in 1984 from Monurmukh High School. Also as part of his early student life he attended in Sylhet Cadet College, to gain admission there he had to complete class four and five in a year, he did not study there for long, he studied there for one and a half years and then returned back to Monurmukh High School and finished his high school education there. After high school study, he was admitted to Habibullah Bahar College in Dhaka in 1984, he could not finish his studies there because his father had been living in the UK since the second world war till now and wanted him and the rest of his family to join him.

He then came to the UK in 1988, he took a two year course in BTEC Electronics in Brixton College in London. Later on he started work in an off license shop and worked there for two years. He did not feel happy working there, he felt as though he wanted to do something more with his life. So one day he came to Brick Lane to visit a friend's shop, which was Sangeeta Music shop, he liked everything about the shop because it provided books, magazines, newspapers and music from Bangladesh. After visiting the shop he felt that this was his future to provide for the Bangladeshi Community in the UK.

He dedicated himself in Sangeeta for seven years from 1991 to 1998, the owner invited him to be a partner of Sangeeta which he happily accepted.

Now Shanur Miah is a successful and proud owner of Sangeeta and is happily settled in the UK with his wife Shahanara Akther and his two daughters Suhana Akther, 11 years old and Tarana Akther, 7 years old as well as their son Shameer Miah who is 1. Both his daughters are studying in Robert Browning Primary School at King and Queen Street in London.
