

Mr Mohammed Abdal Miah

Place of Residence: Kent

Sector: Catering

Mohammed Abdal Miah came to the UK with his family in 1980. His father is Mohammed Moyna Miah from village (Siramishi) Jagonnathpur, Sunamgonj. He started his own business 'Silma Cuisine' in 1983.

Throughout his time in the UK, he has helped and worked for numerous charitable and community based organizations; he is a Trustee and Treasurer for the Jagonnathpur British Bangla

Education Trust. He is also the Trustee for Tunbridge Wells Bangladesh Trust, the Siramishi Educational Development Trust, Jagonnathpur Probashi Khollan Trust among others. Moreover, Mr. Miah is also the treasurer of Siramishi Welfare and Development Trust and of the Mohammed Charity. He is an active member of Bangladesh Caterers Association.

Mr. Abdal Miah is helping out the underprivileged and has contributed much towards schools and madrasha's as well as helped with funds for the constructions of roads in his home village, in Bangladesh.

Mr. Miah is currently married to Sanaza Begum and they have three children, of which two are daughters and one son. Mr. Abdal Miah enjoys travelling and has visited numerous countries in the Middle East and Europe.