

Ms Rohema Miah

Place of Residence: West Wickham, Kent
Sector: Civil Service

Ms Rohema Miah is an experienced political advisor having worked over the past ten years with a number of senior politicians. She has served as a political assistant to Ms Oona King (2002-2005) and the Rt. Hon. Harriet Harman QC. MP (1987-2002) and many other recognised politicians. Throughout her career, Ms. Miah has campaigned for the need for equal opportunities and better community relations and continues in her role as BAME Advisor to the Rt Hon. Harriet Harman QC. She has demonstrated a commitment to end social exclusion and child poverty in addition to her campaign for sustainable development.

She has visited Bangladesh on numerous occasions with senior politicians and celebrities and has campaigned strongly on the issue of global warming.

Among many of her achievements, Ms. Miah has helped launch the English for speakers of other languages (ESOL) Consultation for DUIS Minister John Denham MP as well as delivering numerous Executive Public Affairs roles for high profile government initiatives. Earlier this year Ms Miah organised and co-ordinated the Ethnic Catering Alliance Rally held in Trafalgar Square

She is also an advisor to various Asian and non-Asian organisations including the International Commission of Peace (ICOP) and the Muslim Women's Network; part of an initiative set up by the former Minister for Trade and Investment, the Rt. Hon. Patricia Hewitt MP.

Ms Rohema Miah was a Director for the Commission on British Muslims and Islamophobia and Jermaine Jackson's NGO, Earthcare International as well as serving as the Policy and Development Officer for the Centre of Muslim Affairs (2006-2007). Within the last few years, she has also co-ordinated interfaith projects to create a better understanding such as Alif Aleph, an organisation promoting dialogue between Muslims and Jews. As an Ambassador for peace for a UN affiliated organisation Ms Miah visited Palestine and the Gaza and has lobbied continuously on the plight of the Palestinians and for the removal of the Apartheid Wall Ms Miah was an Executive Founding member and Press Officer for the Muslims for Labour Group (2003-2005) as well as a Political Consultant Advisor for the launching of the of UMCOR/Muslim Aid Partnership in Parliament.

Her present activities include being a Trustee at the Henna Foundation and a Political Affairs Advisor for MUSIAD UK. With her work in social and community projects, Ms. Miah hopes to progress, capacity build and promote understanding and to further facilitate the path for better community relations.