

Mr Kamal Mohammed Chowdhury Azizur Rahman

Place of Residence: Peterborough
Sector: Catering and Property

Mr Kamal Mohammed Chowdhury Azizur Rahman is currently the owner of a chain of restaurants called Eastern Garden and Curry Inn (UK) Ltd.

Mr Rahman completed his HSC exam in his birth country of Bangladesh before coming to the UK. In the UK he went on to complete his GCSE's and has been self employed since 1985. he is the son of Mr Alhaz Mohammed Ali Chowdhury who was an Army Officer in Bangladesh before moving to the UK in the 1950's, his mother is Mrs Foyzun Nahar Chowdhury.

Most notable is his dedication and commitment to charitable work and helping with other organisations. Mr Rahman is the president of BBC Bangla Media forum which is an organised body who fight for equal opportunities for Bengali people on BBC radio and also promote Bengali entertainment on the BBC radio in the UK.

Moreover, Mr Rahman is the President of Bangladesh Welfare Association in Peterborough, Parent Governor of the three state schools (primary and secondary) in Peterborough, executive member of the Local Mosque Community, founder/secretary of Zakiganj Welfare Association, president of Barrohal Union Welfare Association.

Additionally Kamal M.C.A. Rahman is the founder, trustee of Shahbagh Development Trust, Chairman of Shahbagh Jamea Madania Quasimul Uloom Trust, member of the Organisation for the Recognition of 'Bangla' as an Official Language of the UN, fundraiser for natural disasters such as appeal for Cyclone Sidr and flood victims and importantly he has self funded Madrasha's and Orphanages in Bangladesh in Shahbagh and Zakiganj.

More recently he has become the founder director of one of the biggest projects which is coming to Bangladesh called One City which will be creating over 15,000 permanent jobs and presenting an iconic building in Bangladesh.

Mr Kamal Mohammed Chowdhury Azizur Rahman is married to Foujeya Aktar Chowdhury Kamal. Their eldest son Kawsar M.C. Kamal is at the University of Brighton where he is completing a Masters of Pharamcy Degree. Their second child Farhana Aktar Chowdhury Kamal is attending a Sixth form, namely the Thomas Deacon Academy whilst their youngest son Ahmed Deedat Chowdhury Kamal is completing his GCSE's at Islamic Hafiz education at Dar Uloom in Lesicester. Their youngest child, daughter Ameerah Aktar Chowdhury Kamal is attending primary school, where she is on the school council.