

Mr Mohammed Emdadur Rahman

Place of Residence: Bangor, Wales

Sector: Business

Mohammed Emdadur Rahman, was born on the 13th of November, 1961 in Jawa Bazaar, Kidrakapar, Shunamgonj, in Sylhet. There he went to school and then, in 1975, he came to the UK, aged 13 where he continued his secondary education. Then at the age of 16, he started to work full time. In 1979, his father opened his own restaurant business; however, this was soon closed down due to lack of business.

In between the years of 1983 and 1990, Mr. Emdadur Rahman worked in several restaurants in different parts of the UK from Edinburgh to London, and in 1991, he was finally able to start up his own restaurant business in the North of Wales. He named this restaurant Moonlight. Many years later, in 2004, Mr. Rahman decided that he was going to further his business and open his second Restaurant; this one was named Arman Bengal, which is also situated in North Wales. During the same year he also featured in S4C channel in Take Away Curry.

Besides his business, Mr. Emdadur Rahman is also part of many organizations which are associated with the Bangladeshi community. He is a member of Burnley Bangladesh Welfare Association and a vice Chairman of Greater Sylhet Development (Chester and North Wales). He is the secretary of Bangor Bangladeshi Welfare Association. In addition to that, Mohammed Rahman also keen when it comes to raising funds for charity. He holds an annual Charity night at his Restaurant Arman Bengal. One of the causes the night helped raise money towards the victims of the Bangladesh Flood.

Mohammed Shomuz Miah is the father of Mr. Rahman and is at present a retired community chairman and worker. Mr. Shomuz Miah, who was invited to attend Her Majesty's Garden Party for his community work, has been a strong and inspiring role model for his son. Mohammed Emdadur Rahman married Mahmuda Rahman in 1984. Since then, both have been blessed with 4 children, two sons and two daughters. Their eldest son is Sadiqur Rahman and eldest daughter is Mahima Rahman. Their youngest son is, Saliqur Rahman and their youngest daughter is named Nazima Rahman. All four children are currently studying.