Mr Mohammed Mujibur Rahman is the current General Secretary of Bangladesh Centre, London, and the joint Secretary of voice for Justice UK. He was born in village Kalijuri, Golapgonj, Sylhet in Bangladesh. Mr Rahman studied at the Madan Mohon College in Sylhet where he achieved his first degree in 1979 and later in 1983 he completed his LLB (Hons) from Dhaka Law College. Mr Rahman continued his studies in Bangladesh as he completed the Master of commerce degree in 1984 at the Jagonnath University College in Dhaka. Once in the UK, Mr Rahman completed his Post Graduation Certificate in Education in 1993 from East London University.

Whilst carrying out his education, Mr Rahman was a very active student getting involved in both student politics and organising activities. He was the General Secretary of the Student council at Al Emdad High School and during his time at the Madan Mohon College, Mr Rahman was elected magazine secretary of the student council. Mr Rahman was also the joint founding convenor of the Jalalabad Chhatra Kallyan Samity based in Jogonnat University College Dhaka in 1980-81. Soon after a year Mr Rahman was an elected President of that student organisation since 1981-1983. In addition to Mr Mohammed Mujibur Rahman's full time role as a primary school teacher in the London Borough of Tower Hamlets, he is also a very active member of the community. Since April 2005, Mr Rahman has been the General Secretary of Jatiya party as well as the Vice chairman of the Central Shaheed Minar Committee UK. Likewise he is also an Executive Committee Member of the Bangladesh Welfare Association. He is also the President of Budhbari Bazar Welfare Association UK.

Moreover, Mr Rahman is also a founding trustee of Gulapgonj Welfare Association and Education Trust, Mother & Child Trust and currently a senior joint Secretary of Gulapgonj-beani Bazar Oikya Sangstha. Furthermore, he was the treasure for two terms in the Tower Hamlet Law Centre, London.

Mr Mohammed Mujibur Rahman is married to Helen Begum Rahman in 1986 and have been blessed with one son and four daughters. Their only son, Mohammed Hussain Rahman is studying Finance at University of East London. Their oldest daughter Lubna Begum Rahman is currently studying for her A Levels and Farhaana, Tamanna and Samina are still in school. In 2005, the family won Bangla TV's Best Family Award.

Mr Rahman's interest include reading books, community welfare and travelling. From his hard work and life style, one can clearly see his effort towards developing educational institutes where students fulfil their potentials not just in the UK but also in Bangladesh.
