

Mr Md Alim Uddin D(Hom) MED MHMA

Place of Residence: London

Sector: Medicine

Md. Alim Uddin D(Hom)MED MHMA is a beacon for the Bangladeshi Community in United Kingdom. His pioneering role in Homeopathy and Alternative Medicine among the different communities in UK specially the Bangladeshi Community, is a pride for the expatriate Bangladeshis in UK. From Plymouth to Inverness and different countries in the European Union including Spain, Italy, Germany. The name and fame of this Homeopathy Practitioner is known to the Bangladeshi Community living there. He is respected as one of the pride of the expatriate Bangladeshi Community in United Kingdom.

Md. Alim Uddin is a philanthropist and comes from a respected Muslim family of village Ghungadia (Maligram) Post Beanibazar, District Sylhet, Bangladesh. His father Late Haji Abdur Roshid was a reputed community worker of his age and helped the needy and the poor of his village. Born in Maligram, Beanibazar, Sylhet on in 1958, Md. Alim Uddin is the third of the three sons and two daughters of late Haji Abdur Roshid. He came to UK in 1969 at the age of 17 year. His ambition was to get a higher degree in Homeopathy and Alternative Medicine.

Md. Alim Uddin D(Hom)MED MHMA started his professional education from Bangladesh and has enhanced it in UK. Among them are: D(Hom)MED from Jalalabad Homeo College, Sylhet, Bangladesh 1992, Member UK Homeopathy Medical Association in 1996, Fellow British Institute of Homeopathy in 2001 and Fellow Registration Consul of Homeopathy, UK in 2007. (This award was given at the 3rd International Conference of RCH held at Dubai, UAE by the Chief Patron of the Conference Lord Aaron Kenneth Ward Atherton of Whitley and Hurcott in Worcestershire where dignitaries such as Charles Hahnemann grandson of Dr. Samuel Hahnemann the founder of Homeopathy was present.)

In 1995, he founded the Forest Gate Homeopathy Centre at Wimbledon, London. Within three years time he shifted his Surgery to Forest Gate, London and renamed it as Forest Gate Homeopathic Practice where he is still practicing and serving the community.

He provides a free counselling service to the community in London Newham Borough and community work in Green Street North Ward. He also sponsor children's play event for the community. He also wrote different articles on Alternative Medicine and got a good recognition in the UK.

He has widely travelled to different cities in United Kingdom and performed Hajj and Umra in Saudi Arabia. He exchanges views with Bangladeshi living in various part of the world. He was awarded Channel-S Community Award 2006.

Md. Alim Uddin D(Hom)MED MHMA is married to Roshna Begum in 1978 and blessed by three sons and one daughter. His eldest son Shamsul Hoque is an Electronic Engineer, second son Anamul Haque is an Architect. His only daughter Farzana Begum Lubna is a student of Secondary School and so is his youngest son Kamrul Haque.

The lust for community service in Md. Alim Uddin is immense and he is continuously working towards health consciousness of the Bangladeshi Community. He is undoubtedly one of the celebrated icons among the expatriate Bangladeshis in United Kingdom.